Youth Art Month and Music in the Schools Month

Our public library will be showcasing youth art and music for the month of March. Come in and visit, check out some books and see the youth art displayed on our bookcases. Also on Wednesday, March 25 at 2:00 pm. come in and listen to some musical performances by some of the students of Neillsville Middle and High School! They will be performing selections that moved on to the state level at Solo & Ensemble this past month. CELEBRATE YOUTH AND THE ARTS! Come into our library to help encourage and promote our youth.

Complete your census online at the local library. In March and April 2020, community members may use Neillsville Public Library computers and internet access to complete the Census questionnaire online. Bring in your postcard that was sent by the US Census. This postcard has an ID number for easy access to completing the questionnaire. If you have misplaced your postcard, no worries, our staff can assist in accessing the site for the online survey.

Books Tasting Event

Books are more precious than GOLD at the end of the rainbow! Calling all Leprechauns! Come out on March 26th for a Book Tasting Event from 1-2:30 pm. We will sit restaurant-style at the table and BRAIN FEAST on some good books. All genres represented, you can snack and read and enjoy our hot cocoa bar. How it works: sit at the table pick up the book at your place setting and begin reading; after 15 minutes, we will switch with a neighbor and begin a different book. Come to the Library, whet your appetite, and then check out a book you never know we had.
