Author Visit: Jeff Nania

On Monday, November 8th at 6:30 p.m. we will be hosting visiting author Jeff Nania. Jeff Nania was born and raised in Wisconsin.

His family settled in Madison's storied Greenbush neighborhood. His father often loaded Jeff, his brothers, and a couple of dogs into an old jeep station wagon and set out for outdoor adventures. These experiences were fundamental for developing a sense of community, a passion for outdoor traditions, and a love of our natural resources.

In his Northern Lakes Mystery Series, Jeff draws upon his years serving as a decorated sheriff's deputy and in-depth knowledge of Wisconsin's natural resource issues to weave together stories that keep readers wondering who is on the right side of the law in the small town of Musky Falls.

Reading Challenge

There is still plenty of time to participate in the Neillsville Public Library 2021 Reading Challenge.

The challenge is until December 3rd.
Reading just 10 books mean you can enter your name into the drawing for a special prize at the end.
